JOB TITLE:	CAMHS Operational Pathway Lead Clinical or Counselling Psychologist Clinical Nurse Specialist (Mental Health or LD) Family Therapist/Systemic Psychotherapist Social Worker Newham CAMHS Neurodevelopmental Team Intensive Support Pathway
BAND:	8b (Part time 0.6 WTE – 12 months fixed-term contract)
DEPARTMENT:	Newham CAMHS
DIRECTORATE:	Specialist Services Directorate
REPORTING TO:	Line Manager
ACCOUNTABLE TO:	Professionally accountable to Psychological Therapies Lead. Operationally accountable to Clinical Team Lead and CAMHS General Manager for achievement of team objectives.

JOB ADVERT

We are seeking an enthusiastic and creative CAMHS Operational Lead to come and work in the socially and ethnically diverse borough of Newham. The successful applicant will have significant expertise in working with children and young people with learning disability, autism or both, and in behavioural approaches, including Positive Behaviour Support. This post is open to applicants from Psychology, Nursing and Social Work.

This post is part of a comprehensive Child & Adolescent Mental Health Service, within the East London NHS Foundation Trust. This is a community based post in Newham CAMHS. The post holder will be part of a Monday – Friday, 0900-1700 Intensive Support Pathway (ISP) within the Neurodevelopmental Team (NDT). The post holder will be expected to conduct specialist behavioural assessments and offer evidenced based clinical interventions to children and young people with autism, learning disability or both, who are at risk of admission to hospital or home placement breakdown.

The post holder would directly contribute to and support a positive working environment with the Multidisciplinary team. This is a community-based post, which also requires a high degree of professional autonomy and self management. The post holder will be supervised by a senior colleague within the team. There is a strong commitment to clinical supervision and professional development within CAMHS and the wider NHS Foundation Trust including many learning and teaching opportunities.

Newham CAMHS is a large and vibrant specialist child and adolescent mental health service with a reputation for innovation and flexibility in meeting the complex mental health support needs of Newham's children, young people and families. It is centrally located on one site in Plaistow, Newham, and provides an extensive and growing range of services including multi-disciplinary specialist teams such as the Emotional & Behavioural Teams, Adolescent Mental Health Team, Paediatric Liaison Team, Neurodevelopmental Team, and Mental Health in Schools Team. There is a broad spectrum of disciplines (approximately 50 whole time

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Job Summary:

Specific NDT ISP Duties:

To work as a senior practitioner with complex clinical work: assessments, formulations and interventions for children and young people presenting with learning disability and/or autism and significant behavior that challenges or mental health problems in the CAMHS NDT Intensive Support Pathway. Demonstrating an awareness of the potential impact of wider systems on individuals and families, requiring intense concentration over prolonged periods on a daily basis. To be able to assess and provide the appropriate format of intervention such as: individual, family or group work.

To provide consultation and training to professionals who come into contact and who have an important influence with children and young people referred to the NDT.

To support the team to carry out their work and to represent the pathway alongside junior colleagues at multi-agency meetings and Care Education and Treatment reviews (CETRs).

To support the team to carry out effective risk assessments with children and young people, and their families and networks of support, as part of the wholistic behavioural assessment and intervention.

To ensure that children and young people, and their families, receive a culturally competent service.

To ensure that interventions and work with care staff or families of children and young people adheres to the principles of evidence-based behavioural interventions.

To support the team to be able to utilize skills flexibly so that interventions can be creatively thought about and provided at children and young people's homes, schools, clinics or other appropriate settings.

To offer line management and/or clinical supervision to staff in the ISP.

To act as a lead for the ISP for safeguarding concerns, be aware of and adhere to Safeguarding Guidelines and know when to inform and share these concerns with other colleagues.

To work collaboratively with Neurodevelopmental Clinical Team Lead on internal team processes, such as timely and smooth management of cases that need to be 'stepped up' for an intensive intervention within ISP, and also when these need to be 'stepped down' to routine support in NDT.

To work collaboratively with colleagues in Newham CAMHS, CAMHS Extended Crisis team and Intensive Community Crisis Service to ensure that children and young people are offered a rapid review and intervention if not currently open to NDT.

To review the training needs of staff in the pathway and arrange for this to be addressed, in collaboration with other relevant colleagues, to enable fidelity to the primary therapeutic model of Positive Behaviour Support.

To conduct audit and report on outcomes of the pathway as this is a pilot.

Generic Duties

Provide highly specialist advice and consultation regarding diagnoses and treatment of children and young people with Neurodevelopmental conditions and a range of other presentations to other professionals including CAMHS colleagues and external agencies.

Manage, plan and prioritise own clinical caseload and to exercise autonomous professional responsibility for the assessment and treatment including management of risks. This is done independently within appropriate clinical/professional guidelines.

Work collaboratively with CAMHS colleagues to develop and improve the work of the service.

Provide a highly specialist mental health perspective to the work of relevant groups/teams.

Clinically supervise the work of pre-qualified and qualified junior CAMHS staff.

Develop and support the mental health work of other staff groups in designated partner agencies through teaching, training and consultation.

Formulate and undertake clinical audit and research activities as required.

Participate in CPD and other developmental activities, keeping up to date with relevant mental health research and national guidance (DoH, NICE etc).

Follow broadly defined policies and pursue agreed objectives but exercise considerable freedom in deciding on how best to implement or achieve them.
