

NHS Job Advert:

Job Title: Paediatric Allergy Clinical Nurse Specialist maternity cover at Band 7 / 6 dependent on experience.

West London Children's Healthcare WLCH at St Mary's Hospital is a tertiary referral center which admits children and young people with acute and complex conditions. The Children Services at St Mary's Hospital are aligned with the Paediatric care provision at Chelsea and Westminster and West Middlesex Hospitals and the post holder will be part of a multi-disciplinary team putting the service values of these three hospitals at the center of their practice.

We have an exciting opportunity for a 12 months maternity cover for the Band 7 or Band 6 Allergy Clinical Nurse Specialist, dependent on experience. You will be based at St Mary's Hospital, Paddington, but expected to work cross sites with some services based at Hammersmith Hospital. This is a great opportunity for an experienced nurse to provide visible and supportive leadership to our team. The Paediatric Allergy Day Unit is a busy unit which provides a 5-day service; and supported by a team of world renowned Specialist Consultants. Our staff are trained in oral food & drug challenges, intravenous drug challenges, venom desensitization, immunotherapy, anti IgE treatment; along with a range of diagnostic testing procedures including skin prick testing and spirometry.

The post holder will work in partnership with service users and enabling their care and support by assessing and managing care of children who attend our Paediatric Allergy Day Unit and our consultant and nurse-led clinics, which includes the Hammersmith Hospital site. Aside from promoting positive learning culture, the post holder will lead on a range of risks, governance and quality improvement. The post holder will work with the MDT in monitoring and maintaining policies, standards of nursing care and staff development. This will involve dealing with complex situations and having to take appropriate action in elective, and emergency or unforeseen situations.

It is an expectation that all staff employed who come in contact with children and young people have a duty to safeguard and promote their welfare.

This post will be subject to criminal records bureau checks at an enhanced level
